Article VII: INDEMNIFICATIONS OF OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS AGAINST LIABILITIES AND EXPENSES IN ACTION

- A. Each director and officer of former director or officer of this corporation, and his/her legal representatives shall be indemnified by this corporation against liabilities, expenses, counsel fees and costs reasonably incurred by him or his estate in connection with, or arising out of, any action, suit, proceeding or claim in which he is made a party by reason of his being or having been, such director or officer; provided, that in no case shall the corporation indemnify such director or officer with respect to any matters as to which he shall be finally adjudged in any such action, suit or proceeding to have been liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duties as such director or officer. The indemnification herein provided for, however, shall apply also in respect of any amount paid in compromise of any such action, suit, proceeding or claim asserted against such director or officer (including expenses, counsel fees, and costs reasonably incurred in connection therewith), provided the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall have first approved such proposed compromise settlement and determined that the director or officer involved was not guilty of negligence or misconduct; but in taking such action, any director involved shall not be qualified to vote thereon, and if for this reason a quorum of the Board cannot be obtained to vote on such matter, it shall be determined by the Executive Committee. In determining whether or not a director or officer was guilty of negligence or misconduct in relation to any such matter, the Board of Directors or Executive Committee may rely conclusively upon an opinion of independent legal counsel selected by such Board of Directors or Executive Committee. The right to indemnification herein provided shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which such directors or officer may be lawfully entitled.

Article VIII: COMMITTEES

- A. There shall be no standing committees of this organization. The President, with the approval of the board of directors, shall appoint committees from the membership at large, at such time as the President and the Executive Board determine a need for such committees. The President shall delegate to each committee its duties, and at such time as those duties are completed, the committee shall be terminated.

Article IX: DUES
